FAQ ABOUT EUROPEAN CALISTHENICS FAIR:

WHAT IS THE EUROPEAN CALISTHENICS FAIR?

The EUCE | European Calisthenics Fair 2023 is a two-day bodyweight non-profit sport and health event Co-Funded by the European Union. The event is for Street Workout and Streetlifting athletes, youth, people with disabilities, and professionals in the fitness industry. ELDERLY

YOUTH

ADAPTIVE PEOPLE

The 2-day European Calisthenics Fair will be organized on different levels:

A competition divided into three different athlete categories will be held: seniors, persons with disabilities, and youth. Each category will also have a male and female tournament. These competitions will be structured in a qualifying knock-out system, with different rounds until the final.

Besides the competitions, all-day informal Calisthenics activities (workshops) for young and elderly people and people with a disability will be organized under the supervision of elite coaches and sports educators. This format will introduce citizens at large to the sport and make them understand the different benefits it can bring to personal well-being.

Side activities will complete the event program: 'Meet the athletes' sessions, movie sessions, workshops, DJ shows to attract young people, and virtual and marketing areas. The most famous Calisthenics influencers in the world, coming from the USA, Bulgaria, UK, France, Latvia, Italy, Greece, Serbia, Ireland, Romania, Netherlands, and Spain, will be the special guests of the event.

The European Calisthenics Fair is not only a pure sport and health event but an occasion where athletes, coaches, and citizens from different countries meet in an informal way and around the common interest in Calisthenics. The European Calisthenics Fair in Amsterdam is the moment in which citizens of any age come closer and familiarize themselves with athletes and coaches from all over Europe and the world, who will transmit to them the real value of sport not as a business but as a tool for personal development, growth, and healthy competition.

Another principle promoted during the European Calisthenics Fair is gender equality. Calisthenics is a sport that can be practiced both by men and women: for this reason, the selection of participants will be made in the respect of gender balance, trying to ensure an equal number of men and women as much as possible.

Two different Calisthenics competitions will also be organized, one for men and one for women.

The participation of disabled people is promoted during the event, as Calisthenics can bring many benefits to their well-being, especially concerning enhancing their motor skills and abilities. A special area and dedicated competition for this vulnerable category will be organized during the sporting event, where Paralympics athletes will also participate as testimonials.

The European Calisthenics Fair is implemented by the applicant TCC | The Calisthenics Club and nine associated partners from nine European countries. The associated organizations are national sports organizations that compose the network of Calisthenics federations currently active in Europe: this is the top level of the Calisthenics movement in Europe.

TCC | The Calisthenics Club and the associated partners are parties of an International ISF / EUSF Street Sport Accord that has been signed by more than 40+ countries and its national organizations to work together through the same vision, organizational structure, establishing universal rules and regulations, national and international competitions structures, certified accommodations systems, memberships systems, educational programs all around the world and special youth education programs to implement in each member country.

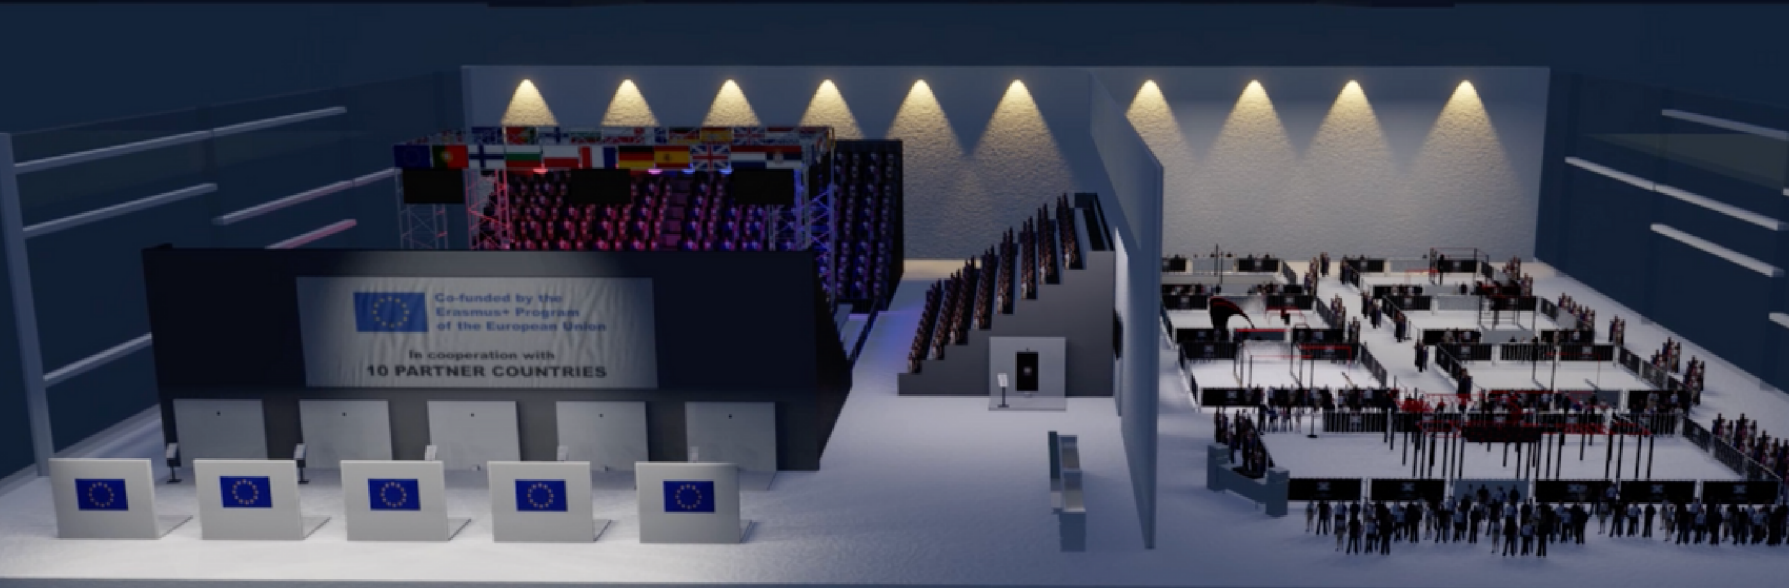

TCC | The Calisthenics Club and the associated organizations represent thousands of athletes, managers, practitioners and elite coaches. They have a long experience in organizing Street Workout and Streetlifting events, management of sport clubs, design of sport programmes, citizens' engagement and social inclusion through Calisthenics.

They will bring different professional profiles such as athletes with experience in international competitions. Paralympics athletes, elite coaches, sport managers, physical education professors, communication and social media experts, and volunteers.
